national association of
welfare rights advisers

Joining NAWRA

NAWRA aims:

1. To challenge, influence and improve welfare rights policy and legislation; and
2. To promote NAWRA as the national voice of welfare rights advisers.

Our objectives are:

1. To build a strong national network of welfare rights advisers from all sectors;
2. To seek to influence government proposals and existing legislation by utilising the expertise of our members;
3. To identify and share good practice and to promote anti-discriminatory practice;
4. To offer mutual support and provide a forum for discussion;
5. To facilitate learning workshops and distribute information;
6. To recognise and challenge discriminatory legislation; and
7. To promote welfare rights issues and encourage effective partnership working.

Membership is available to those whose work is undertaken in an organisation with policies and procedures in place to ensure that clients receive a high quality service. Applications for membership will also be accepted from organisations and individuals who, while not working in advice, share NAWRA's aims and support our stated objectives.

Membership covers all employees, including paid staff and volunteers, within an organisation and includes free attendance at NAWRA conferences and events along with access to resources on the NAWRA website.

Please note that you are not eligible for any benefits of NAWRA membership until you receive confirmation that your membership has been approved. Membership of NAWRA does not confer any endorsement of your organisation, products or services and the NAWRA logo cannot be used in any publicity or marketing materials without express permission of the NAWRA committee.

To apply for membership, please complete the form overleaf.
